MARRIED AT LEXINGTON.

The marriage of Miss Maude Johnson and Mr. George Flanders, both of North Middletown, was celebrated yesterday morning at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. I. J. Spencer, at Lexington. The bride's brother, Mr. Elisha Johnson, and Mr. Ernest Crouch were the only attendants and the ceremony was witnessed by Mrs. Spencer and Mr. P. A. Davey.

COMMITTS SUICIDE.

At Cynthiana Wednesday evening, Silas Paul, aged fifty-five years, swallowed three ounces of carbolic acid in a Pike street saloon and died an hour later after suffering intense agony. He was terribly burned about the face and neck. Paul had been drinking hard for several weeks and tried to end his life by taking morphine. He had recently inherited considerable money from his mother's estate and spent it with a lavish hand. Finding that he would be compelled to seek refuge in the county infirmary he preferred death. He was well known over Central Kentucky, having been Chief of Police at Millersburg, for several years, and was an applicant for the position of Postmaster under ex-President Harrison. About fifteen years ago he conducted a saloon in his city, where Hill & Braannon are now located, and at that time was a man of handsome appearance.

A. J. Winters & Co., the up-to-date jewelers, will move to their new store room April 1st.

STARVING TO DEATH.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair street, Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Best health tonic on earth. 50c. Guaranteed by Oberdorfer, the druggist.

LOCATION OF THE FAIR.

The News has earnestly advocated a re-establishment of the old Bourbon county Fair, just as at all times it has favored any enterprise for the well being of Bourbon county and the city of Paris. Unless it be the building of the electric road into the Eastern end of Bourbon no undertaking now in view is of such importance to our people. Hundreds of persons every year are attracted to neighboring counties, leaving therein thousands of dollars, for the purpose of viewing displays of live stock and other agricultural products, or to meet friends whom we may not see for years except for occasions of this sort, and who are happier to visit an exhibition of the same nature at home if opportunity afforded. To live stock and agricultural interests such a fair is of utmost advantage, and it goes without saying that whatever is of benefit to these interests is helpful to every individual in the community.

The fair will be held. The men interested in the matter have determined not to fail. What is the most available location? The News man was sent on a tour of inspection, and visited each piece of property that has been suggested as a suitable location. To sum it all up it is utter folly to think of placing the new fair out of the reach of the traction road. If there is a difference in the price of the land the difference in gate receipts at a single fair will overbalance in favor of the traction site. Then in addition the traction company has made a liberal subscription on condition that the grounds chosen are adjacent to its line. The old fair grounds cannot be purchased, and of all other sites suggested the vacant property opposite John A. Lyle is by far the most advisable and best located. The fair should not be held farther than that property from the city, and ground nearer can be had. We are for the fair wherever located and the News will do all in its power to make it a success, but much depends upon securing a location easily reached by the greatest number of people. Fairs depend for a living upon gate receipts.
